RIEHM-REAM GENEALOGY

The Riehm Family in Germany

Norman W. Ream, of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, after being elected president of the Ream Family Association of America annually for many years, was in 1930 chosen president of this association for life. He is a descendant of Johann Eberhard Riehm, of Leimen, Germany, who emigrated to Pennsylvania about 1717, and for the past thirty-five years he has been spending much time, effort and money in collecting information about the descendants and ancestors of this emigrant. Besides finding many records of American descendants, he succeeded in locating and communicating with descendants of the Riehm family living in Leimen, Darmstadt, and Berlin, Germany and secured from them valuable information and data of the Riehm (Ream) families in Germany and especially of the Riehm family of Leimen of which Johann Eberhard Riehm was a member. Mr. Norman Ream has very generously furnished most of the history and records of the Ream families given in the following genealogy. The Ream family is related to the Stukey Family through the marriages of two children of John Stukey 2); Anna Stukey who married Sampson Ream, and Joseph Stukey who married Mary (Molly) Ream. Sampson and Mary were children of Abraham Ream "The Miller", of Fairfield County, Ohio.

Noah Stukey 4) son of Joseph and Mary (Ream) Stukey married Mary-Ann Clem, daughter of Elizabeth Grove and Henry Thomas Clem, thus bringing the Clem and Grove families into this group of families.

----- and you shall know
That this life's sweet breath,
This very heartbeat's deepest ownership,
Is only loaned, and through your blood
Rolls past an heritage of ancestry
Alike with far outstretching future,
And that for every hair upon your head,
A fight, a woe, a death was sufferedX

Hermann Hesse

Forever do they come, forever pass,
They never rest in stale sterility,
We see their ups and downs as through a glass,
And leave their fates to God's eternity.

THE RIEHM FAMILIES OF WINZINGEN, IN THE RHINE PALATINATE

Families named Riem (Riehm) have lived in Winzingen for many generations. This place is located in the Rhine Palatinate near Neustadt on the River Hardt and formerly belonged to the Electoral Palatinate (Kurpfalz).

(5501) Dr. Friedrich Karl Edward Riehm, Doctor of Jurisprudence, member of the Evangelical Consistory Council at Breslau, and who was in 1934 and 1935, in charge of the parish register bookkeeping system at the chancery of the German Evangelical Church at Berlin, is a member of a Winzingen line of the Riehm family. In the spring of 1938 he sent the editor of this volume much information on the history of his branch of this family and also a number of records of the Leimen family which have supplemented the information sent by Johann Christoph Riehm on this family.

The material sent by Dr. Friedrich Riehm included a reprint of a genealogy of the Riehm family from "The Refugee Francois Roux, His Ancestors and Descendants" by Oscar Roux. Most of the data given below regarding the Winzingen family and the lineage of Dr. Friedrich Riehm has been gleaned from this reprint.

The Riem family of Winzingen appears for the first time in 1592, in the records of taxes collected for the annual tributes to the Turks who for many years threatened all Christendom. The name Eberhard Riem appears in this for 1592, but not for 1584, giving support to the supposition that he may have emigrated from Leimen between those dates. Also appearing in these tax lists are Quintin Riem in 1604 and 1610 and Nicolaus Riem in 1612, 1614 and 1622. The authoritative lineage of the Winzingen Riehms can be traced back to the supposed brothers Hans Theobald Riem ancestor of the so-called "Black Line", and Hans Riem, born at Winzingen about 1607 and buried at Neustadt, October 21, 1674, a sexton and vineyard owner, and ancestor of the so-called White Line." A brief outline of the lineage of Dr. Friedrich Riehm who traces his descent on the Black Line follows:

The Rihm Family of Berg, Rhine Palatinate

There are also families at Morsch, near Karlsruhe, who spelled their name "Rihm", also some in Karlsruhe. These Rihms are supposed to have originated in a place called Berg in the Rhine Palatinate. They are of the Catholic faith and it has not yet been proved that they are a branch of the Winzingen family.

The Riehm Families of Holland

There are also families in Holland who spell their name, "Riehm," whose common ancestor was born at Hornbach near Zweibrucken in Germany. He went in 1814 to the University of Utrecht as a theological student and later served as a minister in various cities in Holland and finally in Amsterdam where he died in 1842. There are many references to the name Riehm in the old Hornbach records.

The Rihm Family of Freudenheim

The Rihms of Freudenheim are said to have come from Switzerland, and according to old tradition the Riehms of Leimen are also said to have come from that country, but no proof of this has ever been found. It is likewise claimed by some that the Rihms of Freudenheim and of Leimen were at one time related. There are today many families of this name in and near the city of Mannheim whose origin can be traced to Freudenheim. Old records show that there was a Valentine Rihm in Freudenheim in 1740 and in 1756 a Ludwig Rihm, while the parochial records indicate that a Jacob Rihm, born in 1725, also lived there. As early as 1663 the city and church records of Mannheim show there was a Riem family who owned a house and had several children born there. The father's given name was "Daniel" and his wife's name was "Maria Elizabeth." According to the records of the Reformed Church, this family had come to Mannheim from Strassburg in Alsace. Daniel Riem's name is mentioned in the records of the city council of Mannheim again in 1672, but after this date the family evidently moved to some other locality as no later trace of them can be found either in the vicinity of Mannheim or in Strassburg. This Daniel Riem is not to be confused with the Daniel Rim of Heidelberg, as the given name of the latter's wife was Anna Margaretha.

Other Riehm Families of Baden, Germany

There are a number of families named Riehm living in Baden, in the towns of Karlsruhe, Mosbach, Sulzfeld, Kieselbrawn, and Rotteln, near Lorrach. These are all of the Winzingen lineage.

Rehm and Rem Families of Southwest Germany

The information given below regarding the Rehm and Rem families of Southwest Germany, was received from Conrad Rehm of Goppingen, who states that it is the result of a search by a Dr. Maier.

"The family "Rehm" or "Rem" existed in days long past. This name is widely known and originally could be attributed here and there to a man with the name, "Rem", an abbreviation of an old German name, perhaps "Rudmar" or "Rumbold", sometimes changed to "Rumpp", or "Rump", or altered into the form, "Remle", "Rumelin", or "Rommel."

"In the vicinity of the Monastery 'Zweifalten' there were according to its books, about 1450, in Guldstetten, a Hans and a Martin Rem, and in Upflamor an Adam, Conz, George, Hans, Michael and an Otmar Rem.

"The municipal book of Urach, of 1454, mentions at Kohlsteten, (5546) a Hans Rehn, also a (5547) Hans Rumpp and a (5548) Conrad Rem who had as a fief, the estate of "The Frowan" in Oppenhausen. According to the "Register of Rural Damage" of 1476, Hans Rumpp is the "Schuttheiss" or Burgomaster, of this place.

"In Ohnastetten in the year 1476 among seven people subject to taxation, (5549) Heintz Rem has a fortune of 37 pounds, and (5550) Conrad Rem a fortune of 66 pounds. These sums indicate that they were numbered among the middle class of those days.

"In Eningen in the year 1596 (5551) Melchior Rehm was married. He was a son of the late (5552) Jacob Rehm of that place.

"As early as 1356 one (5553) Jacob Rem lived in Tubingen. Here in 1542, the estimated fortune of a (5554) Hans Rem was 300 florins, of young Hans, 70, of old Hans, 50, of Conrad, 250, of Jacob, 200, and of Stefen Rem, 700 florins. These figures are from the records of an assessment which took place to pay a tribute to the Turks. The above named Stefen Rem was called the "Holy one of Zwiefalten."

"The Rehm family of Pfullingen probably came from the nearby places of Kohlstetten and Ohnastetten. The first record of a Rem in Pfullingen, is of one (5555) George Rem whose name appears in the Turkish tax list of 1542 with a fortune of 110 florins. In 1545, he contributed for the same purpose, 21 "Kreuzer" and his servant, two "Kreuzer." Not until the beginning of the following century can several representatives of this family be found in the church book of this place, namely two named George, a Hans and a Jacob. One of these Georgs and Hans are the ancestors of the Rehms living in Pfullingen at present. A son of Hans transplanted the family to Teutlingen. The Rehms were almost all vine dressers and have grown into a very large family."

THE RIEHMS OF LEIMEN, GERMANY

For much of the early history of the Ream, or Riehm, family of Germany which follows, we are indebted to (5556) Johann Christoph Riehm born in Leimen, December 26, 1842, died July 18, 1926, a member of the board of directors of a large Portland cement company at Heidelberg. He did a great deal of research work on the history of the Riehm family in the archives at Karlsruhe and Heidelberg and wrote a brief history of the various Riehm families of Germany and a short genealogy of his own family of Leimen. This latter mentions Johann Eberhardt Riehm who emigrated to Pennsylvania about 1718 and who is the ancestor of many of the Ream families living today throughout the United States.

The spelling of the family name has changed at various times. In the early German records it was written Riem, Rim, Rihm, Riehm and in various other ways. It is, however, usually spelled "Riehm" in Germany today. The name also occurs in the old Pennsylvania records with several different spellings, but the descendants of Johann Eberhardt Ream now write the name, "Ream."

The little town of Leimen where the Riehm family lived for many generations was near the ancient city of Heidleberg on the River Neckar. For centuries the inhabitants there have tended their vineyards on the hillsides of this lovely valley and made their famous wines. Until the time of the Reformation these people were Catholic, but since that time many, including the Riehm family, have been members of the Reformed Church and later of the Evangelical Protestant Church.

Johann Christopher Riehm wrote that the research on the early generations was very difficult for the reason that the church books of the Reformed Parish of Leimen previous to the end of the 17th century were destroyed by fires and the devastations of the French in the war with Louis XIV. Of the church books which survived, the baptismal books commence in 1694, the marriage records in 1696, and the death records in 1699. For earlier records of the family it was necessary to search the General State Archives at Karlsruhe which escaped the ravages of the French, and the ancient manuscripts of the "Knights of the Teutonic Order" who owned and rented much property in the vicinity of Heidelberg.

According to the wine cellarage accounts of the above named German order, there lived in Leimen in 1509, a tanner named Eberhard Riem who had to pay cellar rent on a leasehold located at "The Creek" of six pennies and two chickens. His neighbors were Nicolaus Karge and Veners Claus.

This Eberhard Riem evidently had a brother, Nicholas Riem, who was a monk and in the year 1490 lived in the Augustine Convent at Heidelberg, now known as "Ludwigspatz." When he had joined the order, he gave to this convent two pieces of land, one in the township of Leimen and the other in the township of Handschuksheim. (New Archives, City of Heidelberg, Vol. IV pp. 88-90, rent books and monastery records of the Augustines.) These two brothers are thought to have been the sons of Nicholeus Rym, born about 1432, who was living in Leimen in 1490.

Since the 1490 record of the Augustinian monk, Nicholas Riem, is the earliest record we have in regard to the Ream family, we are giving it below in the original Latin as published in the above mentioned volume:

p. 74: "Infrascripti census habentur in civitate Heydelbergensi. Incipit libber continens census pecuniales fratrum heremitarium sancti Augustini domus in Heydelberg, conditus sub venerabili lectore, fratre Petro Hoenvissel, priore dicte domus Heydelbergensis, anno 1490 * * *

p. 88: "Leymheins, Item I flor. assumptionis ex parte patris Nicolay Rym dat Hans Lysing patet ex littera.

p. 99: "Hentzusheim, Item I flor. martini ex parte fratris Nicolai Rim dat. domicellus Orwinus Wise."

According to the Teutonic Order's monetary and rent register of the Cellarage at Heidelberg, there were residing in Leimen in 1529, Georg and Endres Riem who paid six pennies on a quarterfield, probably a vineyard, situated at the "Stockenweg." This (5557) Georg Riem is supposed to have rented the field from Endres Riem.

In the renovations of the financial registers of the Teutonic Order at the Heidelberg Court, of 1529, 1532, and 1576 are to be found the following entries:

Leimen Rents of 1576:

The widow of Endres Riem paid six pennies and two chickens on a field or farm, at "Der Bach" (The Creek); adjoining above were Jerg Heiselmann's heirs; below, Hans Heym.

(5559) Nickhel Riem, the younger, and associates pay two shillings and one St. Martin's Day chicken on a garden at the "Cross" adjoining the village moat. (Folio 152.)

(5560) Nickhel Riem and associates pay eighteen pennies on a garden between the "Sandhauser Weg" and the "Allmenth" (Folio 156.)

No Riem is mentioned in the entries for 1529 and 1532 in this record.

The financial records of the Teutonic Order at Heidelberg also contain data on persons named Riem as follows:

Endres Riem, the tanner, (1566), paid six pennies and two chickens on a property at "Der Bach"; adjoining above, Veners Claussen; and below, the widow of Niclaus Kargen. So he is probably the succeeding holder of the property of the tanner, Eberhard Riem, of 1509.

(5561) Nickel Riem, senior and junior, are mentioned in the 1600- 1602 as subject to paying rent on vineyards. One of the Nickel Riems, and apparently the older, was a shoemaker by profession, for in the Heidelberg Court Cellarage-Wine Guild Renovation, of the year 1609 are to be found the following entries.

(5562) Nickel Riem, the younger, Folio 157.

(5563) Nickel Riem, shoemaker, Folio 158 1/2.

(5564) Niclaus Riem, Folio 162 1/2.

(5565) Niclaus Riem, shoemaker, Folio 171.

(5566) Peter Riem, Folio 173 1/2

(5567) Georg Riem, Folio 174 1/2.

In the "Collection of 3492 Rent and Property Records " of the Teutonic Order House, Heidelberg, are found:

1592XNickell Riem, the older, rent on a quarter vineyard.

1636X(5568) Hans Rhim, for a neglected vineyard.

1650---(5569) Endres Riem, for a garden above the "Cross," adjoining the village moat.

1650X(5570) Georg Riem, stationary rent.

1650/57X(5571) Georg Riem, field rent.

1650/57X(5572) Endres Riem, field rent.

In the Heidelberg Guild Register, of the Vintagers of 1673/74 appears a (5573) Daniel Rim, citizen and keeper of the "Rebstock" inn, who had a daughter christened "Barbara" June 21, 1674. The records of the Reformed Parish of Heidelberg show the mother's name was Anna Margaretha and that the godmother was Barbara, wife of the citizen and pinmaker (5574) Christoph Keller. It is probable this Daniel Rim left Heidelberg before 1680, after selling his inn named "The Golden Grapevine," located in the House Field in front of the Heidelberg gate, to Andreas Riem, the mayor of Leimen, who was his brother or other close relation. It is thought that this Daniel Rim (Riem) moved from Heidelberg to Hornbach, near Zweibrucken (Two Bridges) in the Rhine Palatinate, as there was a person of this name living there in 1691. It is said that three sons of this Daniel Riem later emigrated to New Bern, North Carolina.

Another brother or close relative of the above Andreas Riem, was (5575) Hans Georg Riem who on July 8, 1675 entered the service of the Elector as a harness maker. (Karlsruhe State Archives, Copy Book 942, p. 1991.)

The following additional information gleaned from the old records will be of interest to descendants of these Riem families. On January 1, 1601, the administrators of the German Order's Cellarage at Heidelberg issued a document concerning the hereditary leases of the Order's vineyards at Leimen to various inhabitants of this village, among them being Nicklas Riem, the younger, lessor of half of a quarter vineyard at the "White Hill" and (5576) Nichlas Riem, the elder, who is mentioned twice as a tenant.

In the year 1609 in the descriptions of the boundaries of vineyards of the Heidelberg Court Cellerage, George and Peter Riem are mentioned as tenants.

(5577) Gorg Rim, (5578) Gorg Rihm, (5578a) Ulrich Rihm, (5579) Hans Ulrich Rihm and (5580) Georg Rihm, a tailor, are mentioned in a record of December 17, 1626 which describes and lists the possessions of the Teutonic Order of Knights at Leimen, Heddesheim, and other places.

Norman W. Ream, the president of the Ream Family Association received a letter from Dr. Friedrich Riehm, of Breslau, Germany in 1935, in regard to the genealogy of the Riehm family of Leimen. Dr. Riehm had studied many of the old records relating to this family in the German archives and endeavored to trace the lineage of Eberhard Riehm, the emigrant, back to the beginning of the 16th century. The following are excerpts from his letter in which will be noted a number of references to the old Heidelberg records mentioned previously :

(5581) "Johann Everhard Rihm was a son of (5581a) Hans Andreas Riem who was born in 1642 and died Feb. 19, 1719; a butcher at Leimen.

(5582) "Johann Andreas Riem (1642-1719) was a son of Andreas Riem who is mentioned in Leimen from 1650 to 1657. I cannot be too sure of the ancestors of Johann Everhard Riem prior to the Andreas Riem mentioned in 1650-1657.

"From 1650 to 1663, (5583) Andres Riem, Jr., grandfather of Johann Everhard Riem, owned a garden at the cross at Leimen. A former owner of this garden was (5584) Nicol Riem, but Nicol Riem was too old to have been the father of Andres Riem. I am inclined to believe that Georg Riem was a son of Nicol Riem and grandfather of Andres Riem.

"Georg Riem is mentioned in Leimen from 1609 to 1657 as the owner of a vineyard near the garden at the cross, which formerly belonged to Nicol Riem. So it is believed Georg was a son of Nicol and Andres a son of Georg.

"The great-grandfather (of Andres Riem Jr.) was Andres Riem, nicknamed, "The Lower." He was the owner of the above mentioned property before Nicol Riem. Andres Riem was the owner of a vineyard near Stockenweg; Georg Riem was the owner of the same vineyard before Andres Riem, so it is believed that Georg Riem was the great-great-grandfather of Andres Riem Jr. Andres Riem Sr. owned a farm at the "Hofreite." This farm was formerly owned by Everhart Reme (The Lower) in 1509 and it is believed that Andres Riem Sr. was a grandson of Everhart Reme of 1509."

It will be noticed that the above lineage is approximated by studying the records relating to certain vineyards and farms which were owned generation after generation by the Riehm family, but there is no proof that these properties descended in each case from the father to son. Andreas Riem, of the 1650-1657 records, was evidently the grandfather of Eberhard Riehm, the emigrant to Pennsylvania, but Johann Andreas Riem (1642-1719) the father of Eberhard, is the first person of this lineage about whom we have authentic records of birth, death, and issue.

HANS ANDREAS RIEM, 1642-1719, OF LEIMEN, GERMANY

(Note that the generation numbers of Hans Andreas Riem and his descendants who remained in Germany are indicated with Roman numerals.)

(5585) Hans Andreas Riem I b. 1642 is the first authentically known ancestor of Johann Eberhard Ream (Riehm, Riem), the emigrant to Pennsylvania. He is believed to have been the son of Endreas Riem of Leimen. In the records of the Reformed and later the Evangelical Protestant Church of Leimen, near Heidelberg, mention is made of the death of Hans Andreas Riem, citizen, butcher and mayor on February 19, 1719, aged 77 years. His wife probably died before

1699 as the parish obituary records which begin in that year do not mention her.

In 1675, during the long wars of Louis XIV of France, the wine press building, many houses and also a part of the church were burned, as the troops had been pillaging Leimen as well as the whole Palatinate. The following letter was probably written by Hans Andreas Riem:

"I, subscriber, cannot abstain from reporting again to the Electoral Palatine Court Cellar Master (5586) H. Huegeln, regarding the renovation of the seigneurial wine press of Leyme, becauseXthanks to GodXthe time of the 1678 harvest draweth nigh, and also because our church has been totally burned, and our congregation compelled by necessity to use the seigneurial wine press, to the effect that I have not been able to maintain neither tub nor butt, as is certainly known to your Lordship, as I have been reporting these conditions twice before this: also have obtained assent already in this matter.

So I hope this my urgent petition draweth once more your Lordship's attention to the above mentioned conditions, all the more as when it rains half of the people cannot get under roof into the dry, also are in danger of life on account of the tiles; also as already mentioned, the vats cannot be kept in fit condition.

So I beg your Lordship to employ every means to have the damage repaired before fall, until at least the nave of the church can be rebuilt, and so I shall be comforted by your most gracious compliance.

Written at Leyman, July 17, 1678 by Your Lordship's devoted servant, (Signed) Andreas Rihm Seigneurial Vintager of Leymen.

According to the records, this matter took its course to the Electoral accounting office.

The clerk of the board of works, Rexroth, made his estimate and Hans Jakob Paulus, carpenter, was put in charge of repairs which were not to exceed in cost more than twenty florin.

The City of Heidelberg was destroyed by its enemies in 1693 and many are believed to have left the city about that time. In the lists of those remaining on whom war contributions and "house funds" were imposed there is the name of Andreas Riem of Leimen who contributed 500 florins for house funds and six florins, forty cruitzer for taxes (Records Heidelberg City, Fasz. 3172).

From the Evangelical Protestant Parish records of Leimen, we learn that Hans Andreas had the following children: (5587) Martin Conrad II), (5588) Johann Nicholas II), (5588a) Hans Andreas II), (5589) Anna Elisabeth Margaretha II), (5590) Johann Mathias II), and Johann Eberhard I), the emigrant to Pennsylvania.

(5591) Martin Conrad Riem II), son of Hans Andreas I), b. 1665 and d. 8-17-1748 at Leimen, Germany. The church records contain no marriage or additional information regarding Martin Conrad.

(5592) Nicholas Riem II), son of Hans Andreas I), known as the landlord of the "Black Bear Inn" at Leimen. He was born sometime before 1694, but date of his death is not known. He m. for his second wife, 8-28-1728, (5593) Petronella Bogner, daughter of the late master tanner, (5594) Peter Bogner, of the suburb of Heidelberg. She was b. 10-15-1697 and d. a widow 3-11-1762. There is no record of children. According to the Baden County Archives, on June 17, 1730, (5595) Nicholaus Riem was appointed a custom officer and tax collector. He filed a petition, dated August 4, 1740 with the Elector, of the Palatine, at Mannheim as follows:

"Illustrious Elector, most gracious Lord:

To your Electoral Highness I am compelled most humbly to submit how your Supreme Highness accorded to me in 1729 to build the custom house free of charges before and after which I also have done accordingly. But since this custom house now is so ruined by the recent war that the same has to be repaired with "praeter propter" 15 florin, and I am not only compelled to pay five florin execution duty, but also my house transaction of 120 florin due me in the near future is confiscated in advance until I have repaired the custom house in question, though I have not received more than 60 fl. Therefore, and because this proceeding seems to me against righteousness and justice, that I am supposed to repair a custom house which has been destroyed without my fault, but merely on account of the last war, I beg your Electoral Highness humbly that your Lordship may grant graciously to command the supreme court of Heidelberg to annul the confiscation of 120 fl. innocently imposed on me and to surrender the amount to me.

Your Electoral Highness' most humble (5596) Nicolaus Riemer landlord from Laymen at present at the Mannheim "Great Stockyard" Inn at Heidelberg. Mannheim, August 4, 1740."

(Note- The present restaurant "Zur Karlsburg" Haupt Str. 53, at Heidelberg, was formerly called the "Great Stockyard.")

It is not known just when Eberhard Ream left Germany, but the parish records of Leimen show that he had two children baptized before coming to America, namely Johann Jacob Riehm on June 14, 1713, and Anna Catharine Riehm on January 19 1716. Eberhard's name is recorded for the last time in these church records when he was sponsor at the baptism of Johann Eberhard, a son of his brother, Mathias Riehm, which took place May 1, 1717. It is believed that Eberhard and his father-in-law Jost Schwab, with their families, left the vicinity of Leimen in the summer of 1717. It is also a tradition that they were accompanied by a family named "Yuber" or "Zuber" from Lingenthal and a family named "Herchheimer," from Landhausen, both towns of that neighborhood. These families were among those who in large companies are known to have left the Heidelberg district between the years 1717 and 1720. This emigration was due in part to a desire of these religious people to continue in their faith unmolested by the authorities, and also no doubt, to the promise of a rich, new life in the New World.

Jost Schwab

(5713) Jost Schwab, the father-in-law of Eberhard Ream, was born in Sinsheim in 1656 and died in Pennsylvania in 1739. He was the son of (5714) George Schwab, baker and advisory burgomaster of Sinsheim, who died sometime before 1689. Jost married on Tuesday, May 27, 1681, (5715) Anna Katharine Wolfharten, the daughter of (5715a) Hans Jorg Wolfharten. In the records of citizenship of Leimen is this data concerning Jost Schwab and his family:

"Today, April 27, 1702, the following persons became citizens, having considered well the duties of citizenship: Jost Schwab, 46 years old, his wife Anna Katharine Schwab, 38 years old. Jost Schwab is a member of the Reformed Church and his wife is a Lutheran; they are natives of Sinsheim at the Elseng, in the District of Heidelberg Baden. They brought with them seven children: Hans Jorg, 19; Jost Conrad, 13; Anna Elizabeth, 11 (later married Eberhard Ream); Anna Margaretha, 7; and Anna Magdalena, 7 (twins); Anna Maria, 5, and Katharine, 6 months."

After moving to Leimen, Jost and his wife had a son, Johannes Schwab, baptized on May 28, 1704 who died Dec 18, 1780 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where his will is on record; and also another son Hans Ulrich, who was baptized Oct. 21, 1707, according to the records of the formerly Reformed Parish of Leimen. This Hans Ulrich is said to have changed his name to Joseph and to have emigrated to America and left descendants who now live in Kentucky.

The name "Schwab" is one of the oldest family names in Germany being derived from the name of a powerful tribe called by Julius Caesar, the "Sueri." The ancient Duchy of Swabia.

Johann Eberhard Ream arrived in Pennsylvania with his wife and two children, sometime before 1718, as his name appears on a list of persons who were in Lancaster County before 1718, but whose names do not appear on the assessment of 1718-1719, (Pub. Lancaster Co. Hist. Soc., Vol. XX, p. 161). He settled in that part of Pennsylvania known as Conestoga. Soon after, we find under date of Feb. 24, 1724, in the Minutes of the Board of Property of the Province of Pennsylvania, Minute Book "L", that: "Eberhard Ream of Conestoga asked for a grant of 200 acres of land on a branch of that creek, including a small Indian settlement called 'Cocalico.' He has the Indians' consent to settle and can pay the purchase money down." Here the family soon afterwards arrived, camping at first under an oak tree, about 400 yards back from Cocalico Creek until a rough log cabin could be built. They were the only white settlers in this region, their nearest white neighbors being twelve miles away. The Indians who lived in a little village across the creek belonged to the Delaware tribe and were friendly to the Ream family. As the Ream boys grew up they played with the Indians and went on hunting and fishing trips with them. The father of this family gradually acquired more land in this neighborhood. The old land records show that he was granted a patent on 420 acres in 1725; 389 acres on June 23, 1734 and 113 acres on Nov. 13, 1750.

On October 14, 1729, the General Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania passed an act naturalizing certain Protestants who were subjects of the Emperor, who had come to Pennsylvania between the years 1700 and 1718. The men to whom this act refers were all settlers in Lancaster County. They qualified themselves for British citizenship "by taking the qualification and subscribing to the declaration directed to be taken and subscribed by the several acts of parliament made for the security of His Majesty's person and government, and for preventing the dangers which may happen by Popish Rescusants." Among the one hundred and more men whose names are listed as being naturalized at this time, was Eberhard Ream.

In 1742, (5716) Count Zinzendorf, the well know church leader, and sponsor of a union movement, while on a visit to Pennsylvania, preached at the home of Eberhard Ream near Muddy Creek and later advised the Moravians of Bethlehem to organize a mission at this settlement. (5716a) Jacob Lischy was sent there as an itinerant preacher and succeeded in extending the Moravian influence among these people, the majority of whom were of the Reformed Church. In 1745, a school and meeting house was built by the settlers on the farm of Henry Haller, Sr., for the use of the Moravian Brethren. It is said that Eberhard Ream was displeased that this building had not been erected on his land and that this started a disagreement between him and the Moravians which led to the latter being denied the use of this meeting house in the summer of 1748. There are many pages of information about this old quarrel in the archives of the Moravians in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, but the following quotations will indicate how these Brethren felt about the Muddy Creek affair and Eberhard Ream: From the minutes of the Helper's Conference of March 7-18, 1748: "Henry Haller and Biebighaus, today left for Muddy Creek. They took with them the following instructions to the Brethren at Muddy Creek:

- "1. That they shall not enter into long-drawn controversy about the schoolhouse at Muddy Creek, but if Tempelman and his people have a right to it, to let them have it. The same shall be their attitude if Lischy claims it, to surrender it to him.
2. As regards the old Riehm and his cohorts (Rotte) they were given this advise: To guard against him and his following as a factious spirit, and care for the welfare of their souls; for the greatest damage can arise, if one enters into the least contract with such people."

From a seven page letter of (5717) Bishop Cammerhoff, dated March 20, 1748, we read. "There is a man at Muddy Creek, named Eberhard Riehm, in whose house, if my memory serves me right, our dear Father (Zinzendorf) preached and of whom Lischy, when he was still at Muddy Creek, made much ado, because he had 700 acres of land and was best able to pay, while the rest of the brethren were poor people. He is a restless and puffed up (aufgeblasener) fellow. He got the fantastic idea into his head, when the brethren first came to Muddy Creek that they should build a meeting house for them on his land. He had the idea that when the building was erected on his land, the Brethren would be under him and he would be the trustee and regent of the congregation, as the Brethren would live their by his grace. But we did not accept his offers and propositions. Hence he became critical and sought to make out of his children a gang (of whom four lived on his land in separate families, but in such a manner that he had not given them any land, could chase them off, if he wanted to do so). He told them that he had 700 acres of land, while in Bethlehem there were only 500. He would unite with them and build a Bethlehem together on his plantation. And then more people would move to him than to Bethlehem. All these ideas were probably the fruits of the principles which Lischy has circulated among these people, when he first preached there."

In the list of the members of the church at Muddy Creek in 1745 are the names of Eberhardt Riehm; Abraham Riehm and wife; and Jacob Riehm and wife. In a 1749 list these names appear:

Riehm, Nicholas, a son of Eberhard; Riehm, John Eberhard, ditto.

The Rev. John Waldschmidt was the pastor of the Reformed churches at Muddy Creek, Cocalico and neighboring congregations from 1752 to 1786 and left many records of baptisms, marriages and burials which include numerous records of the Ream family, most of which are given later in this volume.

When he was about seventy-two years old, Eberhard Ream made a partial distribution of his lands, deeding to his sons Andrew, Jacob, John, Nicholas, and Mathias, 62 1/2 acres, 110 acres, 100 acres, 122 acres, and 100 acres respectively on February 15, 1759. In each case the consideration was for five shillings and the natural love and affection which they beareth for their said son." Eberhard signed his name in German, while his wife Elizabeth, made her mark. These deeds were recorded at Lancaster County courthouse at different times, in 1783, 1786 and in 1802.

It seems evident that the other children also shared in this distribution of property for while they did not have their deeds recorded, the two remaining sons, Abraham and Tobias, later disposed of land received from their father February 15, 1759. For deeds connected with this distribution of Eberhard Ream's estate, see Deed Books U. P., EE and X, Lancaster County, Pa.

In 1760 Tobias Ream laid out a plan of a town which he called Zoar or Zohar, situated on a part of the land which he had received from his father. The lots were 66 feet wide by 297 feet deep and contained 72 perches each. They were sold upon the ground rent plan. The yearly tax was $1.35 per lot, with the curious exceptions that the corner lots were held of less value. These payments were continued until 1880 when the lot owners purchased the ground rent titles from the heirs of Frederick Ream in whom they were vested. Although Tobias Ream named this town Zoar, it was more commonly called "Reamstown." Even the official reports sent from it during the Revolutionary War are dated from Reamstown or Rems Town. When the post office was first established there in 1803, the name was officially changed to "Rhemstown", the spelling later being corrected to "Reamstown."

Soon after Reamstown was planned and more people began to locate there, it was determined to build a church and for this purpose on August 31, 1762, Andrew Ream, son of Eberhard, and Susanna, the wife of Andrew, deeded an acre of land to Jacob and Tobias Ream, in trust, "that is to say for all the Ream families in general and likewise for other good friends and neighbors in particular for a common grave yard and burying ground and also for the building of a Dutch Protestant Church, that is to say a first Calvinist Reformat and Luthern, but no other under what pretense or name, whatsoever." Here in this quiet old graveyard lie Eberhard Ream and his wife Elizabeth, their resting places marked by beautifully carved old headstones, with these inscriptions:

From Fathers of the Reformed Church, Volume 11, pps. 88-92,
Rev. Henry Harbaugh, D.D., Lancaster, 1857

John Waldschmid was a native of the province of Nassau, in western Germany. He was born August 6th, 1724, and educated for the ministry in his native land. When, in 1751-52, Mr. Schlatter visited that country, with a view of securing ministers for the destitute American vineyard, he was one of the six young men who volunteered to accompany him to the New World. With the rest, he was examined and ordained, at the Hague; soon after which solemn occasion, they sailed for America, arriving at New York in the night preceding July 28th, 1752; and thence went to Pennsylvania.

Soon after their arrival in Pennsylvania, Mr. Schlatter accompanied him to Lancaster county, and installed him as pastor over the congregations of Cocalico (since called Swamp), Weiseichenland (then called Sebastian Reicher's church), Modecreed, and Zeltenrieck. from a notice in the Record-Book of the Cocalico church, we learn that he was installed in his charge October 22nd, 1752. He administered the Holy Supper to that congregation, for the first time, November 19th, 1752, to seventy-two communicants; "after having, on the previous day, preached a preparatory sermon, and inquired in regard to evidence of their fitness for the reception of that ordinance." On the 26th of the same month, he administered the Holy Supper to sixty communicants, in the congregation of Weiseichenland; and, January 28th, 1753, at Mode-creed.

On the 14th of May, 1754, he was married, by the Rev. William Otterbein, to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Christian Grub.

After Dr. Stoy ceased preaching at Tulpehocken, Mr. Waldschmid supplied that congregation two years, in connection with his charge, from 1756 to 1758. Some years later, he also preached, for a time, to the congregation of Heidelberg. His ministry in that church ceased in 1770, when they complained to Cotus that he was " a little inactive, and neglectful of them ;" after which, that congregation was joined with Reading. Whether there was just ground for this complaint, it is not easy to decide; we are inclined to think, that the distance he lived from the congregation, and their desire to be more conveniently connected with Reading, may explain it, at least in part.

If this be so, it was neither the first nor the last time when persons saw faults in a minister, on which to build a justification of their own schemes. The long time during which this man of God labored successfully in the same charge, it seems to us, presents an argument, in favor of his efficiency, that far outweighs this incidental complaint.

Still, there was, at one time, also some dissatisfaction expressed by some in his own charge. In the Cotal proceedings of the year 1760, it is said: "In regard to the Rev. Mr. Waldschmid, it appears that his congregations are satisfied with his preaching; only the desire that he might be more diligent in family visitations, and more prudent in his general conduct." Tradition remembers him as a remarkably good natured, mild, and easy man. With all his goodness, and devotion to the Church of which there is no doubt he may have needed at times, the impulse of a special stimulus, to keep him moving with freshness, ministerial dignity, and pastoral earnestness.

In the Record-Book of the Cocalico Church, already referred to, we find the following touching entry, made by the hand of final affection; "God, the Almighty, took our dear father out of the world to Himself, into a blissful eternity, on the 14th of September, 1786, between nine and ten o'clock in the forenoon. On the 15th, in the afternoon, at two o'clock, we committed his remains to the grave. The Rev. Mr. Boos preached his funeral sermon, from Psalm xxiii, 23, 24. God grant that we may all come to where he is! Amen. The tombstone was erected October 6th, 1787; costs ,7 and 2 shillings."

A circumstance, in connection with his tombstone, happened, about six years later, which was thought very singular: and which is not only traditionally remembered in the neighborhood, but we find a record of it in the Church-Book. On a Sunday, June 2nd, 1793, while a large congregation was assembled in the church, listening to the Word of God, and when the winds were quiet, the tombstone of the Rev. Mr. Waldschmid suddenly broke off at the top of the ground, and fell flat upon the tomb. "Many saw it," says the Record, "and all heard it fall." The wonder, in connection with this event, was vastly increased, in the minds of the people, by the fact that Mrs. Waldschmid, who was demented and had not spoken a word for years, began to speak again with others on that same day!

Mr. Waldschmid is buried in the graveyard connected with the church now called Swamp (in early times Cocalico), in Lancaster county, Pa. His widow survived him many years, and died July 12th, 1803. Besides daughters, he had two sons to perpetuate his name. One of them moved to the west; another, whose name was John, lived and died in the Swamp, on the farm where his father had resided, several miles northeast of the church. One of Mr. Waldschmid's daughters was the mother of the two Reverends Gring, who are still laboring in the ministry, in the German Reformed Church. On his tombstone is written:

"Hierruhet in Gott
der Ehrw. Johannes Waldschmidt,
Geb. den 6 August, 1724.
Ins Predigtamt verordnet 1752.
Starb den 14 September, 1786.

ABRAHAM REAM 2), "THE TAVERN KEEPER", REAMSTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA

- (6262) Abraham Ream 2), son of Eberhard Ream 1) was b. in Cocalico Townships Lancaster County, Pa.; m. (6263) Anna Mary Leinbach; their three known children were: Abraham Jr. 3) Juliana 3), Andrew 3).

In the fifty years before the Declaration of American Independence in 1776, thousands of new settlers were arriving in Lancaster County, some finding new homes in that county and others passing through on their way westward. Daniel I. Rupp, made a collection of over 30,000 names of arrivals of Dutch, German, Swiss, French and other immigrants at the port of Philadelphia who took the oath of allegiance to Great Britain between the years 1727 and 1776. This does not include the great wave of immigrants from Scotland and northern Ireland who were also coming to Pennsylvania about this time. Great numbers of these families, especially the Germans and Swiss, settled in old Lancaster County. The roads were filled with their creaking wagons and on quiet, windless days the sound of axes and crashing timber could be heard for miles as the settlers cleared their forest lands and hewed rough logs for their cabins. As this part of Pennsylvania grew in population, many left their farm homes and entered other occupations.

Abraham Ream became a tavern keeper near Reamstown while one son, Abraham Jr. served the community as a miller and another became a tinsmith.

Abraham Ream, "The Tavern Keeper" was born in Cocalico Township, Lancaster County, but the dates of his birth and of his death are not known, and he left no will. There are, however, a number of records at the Lancaster County Courthouse in regard to various transactions in real estate in which Abraham Ream 2) took part. Copies of two deeds are given below the first being especially interesting since it shows that the Germans of Lancaster County used irrigating systems for their lands in colonial times.

ABRAHAM REAM 3) "THE MILLER," 1746-1824, SON OF ABRAHAM REAM, "THE TAVERN KEEPER" (6267)Abraham Ream 3) (The Miller) b. in Cocalico Township, Lancaster County, Pa., in 1746; d. near Sugar Grove, Fairfield County, Ohio, in 1824; buried in the Ream Cemetery there. He was m. 3-6-1775 by the Rev. John Waldschmid to (6268) Rosina Hehn, daughter of Christian Hehn. (See Hain Section) She was b. in 1754 and was Abraham's second wife, the name of his first wife not being known. The 14 children of Abraham were: Elizabeth 4), Sampson 4), Rosanna 4), William 4), Julia 4), Maria 4), Absalom 4), Rachel 4), Adam 4), Abraham 4), Mary 4), George 4), Catharine 4), and Sarah 4).

Abraham owned a grist mill much patronized in the neighborhood of Reamstown and was known far and wide as "Abraham Ream, The Miller." His name appears with the identifying words "The Miller" even on the Revolutionary War muster rolls of Lancaster County, Pa.

In 1798, when Abraham was about fifty-two years old and had a family of twelve children, he and his wife, Rosina, decided to emigrate to the newly opened country of Ohio. In April of that year he sold to David Bricker, "all that grist mill and small plantation in Cocalico Township" for three thousand pounds which was about fifteen thousand dollars, and began preparing for the long overland trip. All their household and farming equipment, and perhaps the materials for the new mill which he was later to build in Ohio, had to be packed into wagons for the journey. Finally, when all was ready they set off, taking the road over the mountains which led to Pittsburgh. There they transferred to flat boats which they floated down the Ohio until the mouth of the Hocking River was reached. Then they turned northward after loading their belongings into small dugouts and made their way up the Hocking River to its falls. From this point they pushed along the banks of the river until they came to the place selected for their new home, which was near the site where Abraham built his new mill in 1804 and which is now called, "Ream's Mill." Here in Fairfield County, Abraham Ream entered four and one-fourth sections of land; the west half of section three in Hopewell Township (now in Hocking County) bought July 22, 1805; three-fourths of Section 33, Berne Township, September 13, 1806, Isaac Schaeffer, his son-in-law purchasing the other fourth; Section 27 in Berne Township, November 3, 1806; Section 34, Berne Township, December 16, 1806 and Section 28, Berne Township, date of purchase unknown. These purchases were made at auction, some of which were bid off against a Kentuckian, at Chillicothe, the capital of Ohio at that time. The price paid for some of the land first bought was nearly four dollars per acre. For the remainder, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 per acre were paid.

Among the first families to settle in the Ream neighborhood were the Stukeys, Swartzes, Biblers, Collins, Rudolphs, Crooks, Brooks, and Hefts. Those who located at the site of the present town of Lancaster in 1798 were Captain Joseph Hunter, Nathaniel Wilson, the elder, John and Allen Green, John and Joseph McMullen, Robert Cooper, Isaac Schaeffer, Emanuel and John Carpenter and a few others. The Rev. Solomon Ream, to whom we are indebted for much of the early history of the Ream family in Ohio, states that Abraham Ream's was the sixth family of white settlers to locate in Fairfield County. There were still some Indians in the neighborhood and wild animals were abundant. Abraham and his sons were strong and courageous men and had a reputation for being great hunters. During their first winter in Ohio, they killed eighteen bears and twenty-seven deer, and many other smaller animals. The bear meat and venison they ate, while the deerskins were made into clothing and moccasins and the bearskins into bedcoverings. Abraham Ream saw many of his old friends and neighbors of Pennsylvania join him in Ohio. He died in 1824, and his wife two years later. Both are buried in the Ream graveyard. He left a will dated August 3, 1818; a copy of which is given below.

"To the Honourable The Senate and House of Representatives of the United States In Congress, the petition of the Subscribers residing on the publick lands on the East Side of the Scioto River in the Territory Norwt of the Ohio, Humbly Sheweth that -----

"Your petitioners many of them having several years Since gone to the nearest Settlement to where they now Reside with design to avail themselves of The Earliest opportunity, of

Occupying land in the north western Territory that Others induced by a prevailing report that Congress Had recently enacted a law for Secureing a preemption Right to actual Settlers and many of them, with Information of the terms Expressed In the Existing law, but having long intended to Settle themselves on the lands north west of the Ohio, and Expecting that congress in their Wisdom would afford Such Encouragement and protection to peaceable and Industrious Settlers as was Usually afforded by the British Proprietors and the Legeslators of the respective States, they have Sen(MS torn) ed since the Indian claim was Extinguished to settle with their Families on such portions of land as they found to be unappropriated to any Individual and contagious to each other, so as they Might Enjoy the comfort and advantages resulting from Civilized Society and Religious worship, understanding however that the Existing law Affords no Security or protection for the Improvements which your petitioners have made with much labour and at much Expense and Risk, having Designed to Settle with their families Dureing life, and to Submit to the Unavoidable risk of an Indian war and all the Inconvencienies inseperable from a New and fronteer Settlemt they feel great Anxiety for their Situation and are mortified with The Disagreeable apprehension that if congress do not Extend that protection to them which has been Usually enjoyd by Citizens Under the Jurisdiction of the Different states, the Settlmnt Which your petitioners have made would Enduce them to comply with any Terms in their power to be enabled to call their own, shall (wit)hout their Knowledge or having it in their power to prevent, it, pass into the hands and become the property of such as have undergone no toil nor run no Risk to improve it Nor probably will Ever Plow Sow or contribute to improve or Support Society in that part of the world, but who may make no Scruple of being enriched by the labour and Toil of your Pe(titio)ner(s) Muc(h) might be sd to prove the Good policy and Importance to the United States Encourageing and protection Infant Settlements, the Experience of all the States in the Union it is persumed contribute proofs to this affect, the facility of communication with the Spanish Settlements and the Encouragement held out to such as Emigrate to them and the numbers that do Emigrate it is hoped afford a powerful argument, in Favour of such, who like your petitioners, Prefer that Governments and laws of the United States to any other in the world, Other arguments might be mentioned, and Greatly Enlarged on but your petitioners do not presume that congress are not prossed of a perfect Knowledge of the subject and of the force of Every argument, that can be afforded, they therefore prefer address in the Simpothy and Justice of congress, than pretend to inform their JudgmtXYour Petitioners therefore pray, that congress would Revise the Existing law, so as that protection might be afforded to actual Settlers, on conditions Clearly prescribed, Expressdly Limited, that such a length of time may be offered for such settleers, to pay the purchase

PETITION TO CONGRESS BY CITIZENS OF THE TERRITORY

(Referred February 20, 1801.)

The Senate, and House of Representatives of the United States of America Met.
The Petition of the Subscribers, Settlers on the Publick land Between the Waters of Muskingum, and Sciota River, in the Northwestern Territory: X Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners Return their Humble thanks to your Honorable Body for your attention to their Petition at your last Session, in making an Act supplementary to the former Act, for settling the Publick Lands in this Territory, in which among other Advantages to Settlers is, dividing the Townships, (before duredted to be sold in Quarter Townships) into half sections, and giving time for the Payment of a part of the Money; & Yet there is one Circumstance in that Law, which Militates forcibly against your Petitioners, especially the poor Industrious Settlers, and what we wish particularly to represent to your Honorable Body; and that is, that their small improvements made at a great expence, and Labour, emigrating so far thro' a Wilderness without inhabitants, and having their Provisions as well as families to Transport, and oftentimes hazarding their lives from the danger of the Savages, and have now formed considerable settlements, should still be exposed to a Publick Vendue to be outbid by an unfeeling Land-Jobber or Speculator, who perhaps has been preying on the Vitals of his Country, until he has filled his pockets, by such we say, the poor honest and Industrious Citizen must submit to have his improvement bought over his head, and him either submit to become his Tenant, or quit his Country; Great numbers have already gone to accept the offers of the British over the Lakes, and of the Spaniards over the Mississippi, and great numbers more are contemplating to go also, should their own Government which has such a vast Quantity of uncultivated Lands, dispose of it in such a manner, and at such a rate, as puts it out of their power to procure any. Which in fact compels them to renounce their own Government the Government of their choice that very Government which many of them fought and Bled to procure, and establish, to go to people the Uncultivated wilds, of despotic Governments, and add strength and population to them. Xwe have imigrated from the different states of the Union, some of us with small property, and large families, with a (hope) to make better provision for them. others of us Renters, unable to purchase in the older states on account of the high price(of Land) and came here at a great expence, and labour, and trusting that Congress would grant us some indulgence, as by our settling down in the Wilderness, a way was opened for others to emigrate and tends much to the encouragment of the Sale of the Publick lands. We would Just suggest to your Honourable Body, an Idea that it is our Opinion should you see cause to grant a preemption right, at Two dollars pr Acre, to the oldest improvement made on Sections and half Sections prior to the first of May one thousand Eight hundred and Sell the Rest, at public Auction, (there being but a small part improved and that along the Publick road) for the most part the Unimproved land, selling so much better on account of the settlement, that the money arising from them Sales, together with the preemption, would amount to more money than the whole sold at Publick Auction, had there been no improvements made. These things we would submit to the serious consideration of your Honorable Body, And if you see meet in your Wisdom to grant unto your Petitioners, a Preemption right, to the Sections and half Sections we have improved, at Two Dollars pr Acre, with all the indulgence as to time for payment, your Honorable Body shall see meet, Clear of Interest until the several payments shall become due; as we conceive the Interest to operate powerfully against us as Settlers, as every means of making money here is yet in its infant State And we further pray that all the fractions except those on Muskingum & Sciota Rivers may be sold Separate without adding them or any of them to entire Sections XAnd whereas numbers of Persons have settled on land reserved by Congress, and not knowing thereof until after making considerable improvements, we pray that if Congress sees meet to grant that such as are able to purchase their improvements, may have granted to them a like preemption at two dollars, and such as are not may have a right of preempt to lease, least others should take advantage and lease it over their heads by an earlier Application, XThese Petitions we prefer to Congress, and trusting to the Justness, and Reasonableness of them; and a Just, enlightened and indulgent Legislature. We humbly hope they will grant us; And Your Petitioners as in Duty bound, shall ever pray. -----

(ENDORSED) Petition of sundry inhabitants in the North Western territory. 20th February 1801 Referred to Mr. Dennis, Mr. McMillan, and Mr. Christie. 25th February, 1801 Report made, considered and prayer of petition rejected."

PETITION TO CONGRESS FROM INHABITANTS OF FAIRFIELD COUNTY

"To the Honourable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

The petition of the Inhabitants of the County of Fairfield in the Territory North West of the River Ohio respectfully Sheweth-----

That your petitioners Haveing Purchased and Settled on Land in Said County sold in the Town of Chilicothe by Virtue of the Laws of the United States Consider the Interest they are bound by said Laws to pay on the purchase money of said Land as a Burden that sits very heavy upon them and one they can but with the greatest difficulty bear. It is not customary for Purchasors of Land to pay Interest on the Purchase money until it has become due and the hardship of being obliged to do it in the present case will appear to be extraordinarily great when it is considered that the Lands are in a very uncultivated and unproductive Condition and that the purchasers can do little more than support themselves upon them until the different instalments shall become dueXFor these and other obvious reasons your petitioners pray your Honours so to amend the Laws on the subject as to release those who have already purchased Lands from the payment of Interest and direct that the Lands remaining unsold may be bought without Interest being required on the purchase money until the different Instalments respectively become due.**

"Your petitioners further beg leave to call your attention to the great necessity of encouraging Seminaries of Learning in this New Country and the propriety of Setting apart certain quantities of Land for that purpose the Proceeds of which shall be appropriated in that way.

"And we pray your Honours to grant two Sections in each Township in this County for that use as Congress have heretofore done in the County of Washington.

"A small donation of Land that will not be felt by the Union would be of the first importance to use and your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray &

Abraham Ream's son Solomon, wrote of his father, "It affords me exquisite satisfaction to be able to write in such commendable terms and to testify to the excellent Christian character of my deceased father. Taken away from us by death when I was a child of only six years, I do not of course retain a very vivid recollection of him; but others who knew him personally speak of him as being a typical representative of the best manhood of his day. He was an earnest Christian, a kind husband, and a loving father. His religion was a type that always made him joyful and happy." In an answer to a letter written him by his cousin, Reuben R. Ream, there is a hint given us as to his contented spirit and happy disposition. In this reply he says:

"With regard to my happiness you must know that I am of rather a happy disposition under all circumstances. It is the proper conception we have of God, and His attributes not to think ourselves better than anyone else, nor worse than anyone. This, then will keep us in a strict line of duty to ourselves, to our neighbors, and thereby to God.  It matters not much where we live or where we die, we can rest assured that we can lie down in peace to rise to meet in a happier and better world.  The only true way to happiness is to walk in the paths of virtue and honesty, and we may rest assured we will never regret the course.  Not the combined wealth of words is able to eradicate the canker speck of guilt.

"May peace spread her wings o'er thy mind."

"Among father's writings is also a paper on 'Heaven a Place of rest; or, it is Well.' This is a beautiful and eloquent description of the glories of heaven, and the bliss and happiness to be there enjoyed by the finally faithful."

Abraham Ream was a member of the St. Matthew's Congregation of the Reformed Church near Sugar Grove, Ohio and was active as an officer of this church. It is observed that in those days the subscriptions for the pastor's salaries ranged for the most part from twenty-five cents up to two dollars. In two instances only did the amounts subscribed, reach as much as five dollars. One of these was Abraham's, the other was that of Henry Anes Hensley. Abraham Ream also held office as township clerk and Justice of the Peace. When twenty-one years old he was elected first lieutenant of the Black Hawks Braves of the First Rifle Regiment, First Brigade, Seventh Division, Ohio Militia.

When only sixteen years of age, Abraham Ream, worked for five months for the Rev. John Wagonhals and was paid at the rate of ten dollars per month. For work done at the mill in 1840, he received thirty dollars for five month's work. In 1848 he bought thirteen bushels of cloverseed, paying at the rate of three dollars and twenty cents per bushel; and two tons of hay at four dollars per ton. Abraham Ream owned and lived on the farm, located one half mile north of the Ream's mill, which he purchased from Daniel Wilson, April 3, 1848. This farm was formerly owned by George W. Brooks, whose wife, Rosan, was a daughter of Absalom Ream.

 and at Christian College in Missouri. When a very young woman her ability as a sculptress came to the attention of an older artist and she was encouraged to study art in Washington, D. C.
 President Lincoln sat as a model for her and the bust which she made of him attracted much favorable attention on account of its great likeness to him. In 1866, Congress by a joint resolution commissioned her to make a life sized statue of Abraham Lincoln in marble. She went to Italy with her parents to execute this commission and was fortunate in securing a beautiful block of pure white Carrara marble for the statue. The finished work was unveiled in the Capitol in Washington, January 25, 1871, with dignified and impressive ceremonies and in the presence of many of the most notable persons in the United States, among whom were many who had been friends and acquaintances of the martyred president. The statue met with immediate acclamation not only as a likeness of Abraham Lincoln, but also as a work of art. It represents him standing with the Emancipation Proclamation in his hands. The demeanor is grave and the expression of the face, thoughtful and benign. This statue stands today in a rotunda of the Capitol where it is admired daily by the hundreds of Americans who make pilgrimages to Washington.

Another well-known statue by Vinnie Ream is that of Admiral David Glasgow Farragut (1801-1870), executed in bronze from the propeller of his flagship, the "Hartford." This stands in beautiful Farragut Square, a short distance northwest of the White House. Other works by this artist are statues of "Miriam", "The West", "Sappho", "The Spirit of the Carnival", also a bust in marble of Mayor Powell, now in the City Hall at Brooklyn, New York; and a bust of Abraham Lincoln for Cornell University. She modeled from life portrait busts or medallions of General George V. McClellan, Thaddeus Stevens, John Sherman, Ezra Cornell,

(7983) TOBIAS REAM, 1718-1775

There was another Tobias Ream, living in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania from 1741 to 1775 who is not to be confused with Tobias the son of Eberhard Ream. Dr. Friedrich Riehm, of Berlin, has sent us copies of records from Germany regarding this second Tobias;

From the archives of the Evangelic brethren at Herrnhut, Germany: XTobias Riem, born September 27, 1718 in the Electoral Palatinate emigrated in 1741 to North America where he married in 1745 and joined in 1749 the Community of Moravian brethren. He died January 7, 1775, at Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

The life of the above mentioned Johann Tobias Riehm and his wife are printed in the "Pfalz Am Rhein," 1933, pages 97-98. From this account we learn that he was born at Theisbergstegen near Kusel in the Palatinate, September 27, 1717, and died at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, January 7, 1775. He arrived at Philadelphia, September 23, 1741, from Rotterdam, via Cowes, together with emigrants from the Palatinate on board the ship, "Marlborough." He was a master mason. On January 13, 1745, he married Martha Rietzel (Reisel) who was born at Huffelsheim in the Rhineland, February 22, 1723 and died at Lancaster, Pennsylvania, December 13, 1780. He joined the Moravian Brethren, November 21, 1749. Tobias and his wife had nine children, but little is known of them.

(7984) John Ream 2) born on the old Ream Homestead, near Reamstown, Cocalico Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, 1732; d. 1782. His will in the records of Lancaster County, does not mention his wife, but names his nine ch.: John 3), David 3), Andrew 3), Anna Mary 3), Suzanna 3), Julianna 3), Mary 3), Esther 3), Samuel 3).
